

Suffolk celebrates Humane Society's first year

Food, fun and fur. The Suffolk Humane Society ended a stellar first year and started its second year with a reception attended by nearly 200 members, volunteers and friends at the Suffolk Museum March 29. The Society also raised almost $500 in raffle prizes to go to the cause.

DEVON HUBBARD SORLIE PHOTOS

Virginia Hope and Nancy Dempsey listen to classical guitarist Robin Welch play at the Humane Society's first anniversary reception March 29 at the Suffolk Museum.

Melinda Adlawon of Driver helps her children, Jabriel, 3, and Emilia, 5, get some refreshments during the Suffolk Humane Society's anniversary celebration at the Suffolk Museum. Her friend, Renee Grisham, in the background, provides a foster home for the Humane Society.

We Specialize In
In-Ground
Vinyl Replacement Liners

FINANCING AVAILABLE

SPECIAL OFFER
 3 mos. ~ NO PAYMENT
 NO INTEREST OPTION

OLIVER'S
POOLS AND SPAS

5013 Godwin Blvd., Suffolk
 255-4550 Since 1978 562-6411
www.oliverspoolsandspas.com

Exclusive

SUPER MAX 27/27

Now is the time to plan!